

Session Nine Evaluation FormDiscovering the Magic of Persuading from The Stage

Assignment Number 9: The speaker is to give a five to seven or ten to fifteen-minute presentation that actively persuades audiences members to follow along and act on the speakers prompts, ideas, and suggestions. The speaker is to logically connect with the audience on an emotional level and influence the audience to take variously-repeated and intentionally increasing actions; i.e., head nods, body movements, and verbal gestures that build up to their ultimately accepting and acting on the speaker's greater call-to-act, buy, or participate in the desired outcome. The speaker should use visual aids and appear confident, well organized, and prepared to deliver an effective speech. You should notice the speakers effective use of movement, intentional pauses, body language, and voice fluctuation as they work to achieve the purpose of their presentation. And the speaker should strive to get the audience to participate and take at least three or four, and possibly, five or more positive actions before their final call to action.
