

Session Seven Evaluation FormInteresting Facts,
Figures, Quotes, & Anecdotes

Assignment Number 7: The speaker is to make their presentation interesting by incorporating a few good facts, figures, quotes, and or anecdotes to add credibility and make the presentation enjoyable. The speaker should be well prepared and present a presentation that provides well researched but enjoyable and interesting facts, figures, quotes, and anecdotes. The speaker should be able to support all of his or her points and opinions with specific facts, examples, illustrations, quotes, and or anecdotes if called upon.

Speech Title: _____ Date: _____

Evaluator: _____

Session Seven Evaluation

1. How appropriate was the speaker's presentation for today's audience? What should the speaker have talked about?
2. Was the speaker well prepared? If not, what should the speaker work on?
3. Was the speaker convincing and credible? What did he or she do well?
4. Were the facts, figures, quotes, and or anecdotes used in this presentation interesting to you? Why or why not?

5. To the best of your understanding, what was the purpose of this presentation?

6. What facts, figures, quotes, and anecdotes do you believe were most valuable?

7. Did the speaker appear confident? Did he/she look the part? (If not, what could he/she improve?)

8. What would you like to see the speaker to differently next time?

9. What did you like most about this presentation?

Session Seven Reflection