

Session Six Evaluation FormFluctuate Your Voice to Control the Audience

Assignment Number 6: The speaker is to use a voice that is pleasing to hear and incorporates a good balance of volume, pitch, rate, and tone. The speaker should occasionally pause to enhance the delivery of their message. The speaker's voice should show and reflect emotion. It should add value to the words being spoken. The speaker should also and use vivid and descriptive words and body language and speak for a cause or purpose that he or she is passionate about.

Speech Title: _____ Date: _____

Evaluator: _____

Session Six Evaluation

1. Volume:
  - Excellent
  - Satisfactory
  - Too loud or soft

2. Rate:
  - Excellent, varied
  - Satisfactory
  - Too fast or too slow

3. Pitch:
  - Varied, conversational
  - Satisfactory
  - Monotonous, artificial

4. Tone:
  - Pleasant, friendly
  - Satisfactory
  - Harsh, monotonous

5. Pauses:
  - Appropriate, effective
  - Satisfactory
  - Could improve

6. Expressiveness:      ___ Conveyed emotion, meaning
                                 ___ Satisfactory
                                 ___ Could improve
7. Voice fluctuation      ___ Enhanced speech
                                 ___ Satisfactory
                                 ___ Could improve
8. Topic selection:      ___ Facilitated vocal variety
                                 ___ Satisfactory
                                 ___ Could improve
9. Speech flow:           ___ Logical flow of ideas
                                 ___ Satisfactory
                                 ___ Should improve
10. Word usage:           ___ Vivid, descriptive, accurate
                                 ___ Satisfactory
                                 ___ Could improve
11. Body language:      ___ Natural, expressive
                                 ___ Satisfactory
                                 ___ Unnatural, distracting
12. What do you wish the speaker would have done just a little bit differently, something that would have made this presentation more effective?
13. What did you like most about today's presentation?

Session Six Reflection